

Hello Letter!

Dear Applicant:

Downstreet Housing & Community Development is pleased you are interested in our Shared Equity Program. This program is intended to make housing in our communities permanently affordable. Downstreet provides down payment assistance to home buyers through grants up to 20% of the purchase price to those who are at or below 120% of the area median income as defined by the Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD). The grant stays attached to the home upon resale and is recycled to the next income-eligible purchaser. In exchange for the grant, the purchaser agrees to limit the amount of market appreciation taken at the time of resale. This internationally recognized model of shared equity homeownership is funded through a public/private partnership of local, state, and national investors.

Included in this eligibility application are; service descriptions, registration forms, checklist of additional info needed, and required disclosures for the program. Please READ and COMPLETE/GATHER, AND RETURN all documents to Downstreet. Documents can be emailed back to the counselor or sent by mail or fax to the following:

Downstreet Housing & Community Development
22 Keith Ave, Suite 100
Barre, Vermont 09641
Fax: (802) 479-0120

Applications won't be reviewed until all documents are received. Once we receive your completed packet, please allow five to seven business days for review and eligibility determination.

Sincerely,

Downstreet's HomeOwnership Center

Privacy Policy

NOTE: If you have an impairment, disability, language barrier, or otherwise require an alternative means of completing this form or accessing information about housing counseling, please talk to your housing counselor about arranging alternative accommodations.

Downstreet Housing and Community Development (Downstreet) is committed to assuring the privacy of individuals and/or families who have contacted us for assistance. We realize that the concerns you bring to us are highly personal in nature. We assure you that all personal information shared orally and/or in writing will be managed within ethical and legal considerations.

Additionally, we want you to understand how we use the personal information we collect about you. Please carefully review this notice as it describes our policy regarding the collection and disclosure of your nonpublic, personal information.

What is nonpublic, personal information?

- Information that identifies an individual personally and is not otherwise publically available information, such as your Social Security Number or demographic data such as your race and ethnicity
- Includes personal financial information such as credit history, income, employment history, financial assets, bank account information and financial debts

What personal information does Downstreet collect about you?

We collect personal information about you from the following sources:

- Information that you provide on applications, forms, email, or verbally
- Information about your transactions with us, our affiliates, or others
- Information we receive from your creditors or employment references ☐ Credit Reports

What categories of information do we disclose and to whom?

We may disclose the following personal information to HUD, NeighborWorks America, financial service providers (such as companies providing home mortgages), Federal, State, and nonprofit partners for program review, monitoring, auditing, research, and/or oversight purposes, and/or any other pre-authorized individual and/or organization. The types of information we disclose are as follows:

- Information you provide on applications/forms or other forms of communication. This information may include your name, address, Social Security Number, employer, occupation, account numbers, assets, expenses, and income.
- Information about your transactions with us, our affiliates, or others; such as your account balance, monthly payment, payment history, and method of payment.
- Information we receive from a consumer credit reporting agency; such as your credit bureau reports, your credit and payment history, your credit scores, and/or your creditworthiness.
- We do not sell or rent your personal information to any outside entity.
- We may share anonymous, aggregated case file information; but this information may not be disclosed in a manner that would personally identify you in any way. This is done in order to evaluate our program, gather valuable research information, and/or design future programs. We may also disclose personal information about you to third parties as permitted by law.

How is your personal information secured?

We restrict access to your nonpublic personal information to Downstreet employees who need to know that information in order to perform their housing counseling duties. We maintain physical, electronic, and procedural safeguards that comply with federal regulations to guard your nonpublic personal information; and we train our staff to safeguard client information and prevent unauthorized access, disclosure, or use.

Opting Out of Certain Disclosures

You may direct Downstreet to not disclose your nonpublic personal information to third parties (other than disclosures made to project partners and those permitted by law). However, if you choose to opt out, we will not be able to answer any questions from your creditors, which may limit Downstreet's ability to provide services such as foreclosure prevention counseling. If you choose to opt-out, please sign below under the "Opt-Out" clause. If you choose to release your information as stipulated in this Privacy Policy, sign under the "Release" clause. You may change your decision any time by contacting our agency.

☐ OPT-OUT: I request that Downstreet make no disclosures of my nonpublic personal information to third parties other than project partners and those permitted by law. By choosing this option, I understand that Downstreet will NOT be able to answer any questions from my creditors. I understand that I may change my decision any time by contacting Downstreet.

RELEASE: I hereby authorize Downstreet to release nonpublic personal information it obtains about me to my creditors and any third parties necessary to provide me with the services I requested. I acknowledge that I have read and understand the above privacy practices and disclosures.

Conflict of Interest Statement

-Please keep a copy for your records-

Downstreet Housing and Community Development (DHCD) is a non-profit housing organization subject to the laws of the State of Vermont. DHCD values the trust of its customers and is committed to fair and professional relationship. This notice describes the HomeOwnership Center's policy to avoid conflicts of interest. DHCD has clear protocols and policies in order to avoid conflicts of interest which include a limit on gifts that can be received by staff, a requirement to not engage in any activity that would result in personal gain to an employee and his/her relative, and a prohibition against preferential treatment of organizations or individuals. Where applicable, DHCD's standard is to offer at least three options of lenders, Realtors®, inspectors, attorneys and contractors when providing resources to our customers and clients.

DHCD's personnel policy for Conflict of Interest reads:

All employees must avoid engaging in any activity that could create a conflict of interest or the appearance of a conflict of interest. A potential or actual conflict of interest occurs whenever an employee is in a position to influence a decision that may result in personal gain for the employee or an immediate family member as a result of Downstreet's business dealings. A conflict may also arise if an employee engages in activity that has an adverse impact on the ability of Downstreet to carry out its mission in an efficient, effective manner. It is impossible to relate all of the situations that may cause or give the appearance of a conflict for Downstreet, but the following are examples of types of prohibited conduct that may create an actual or potential conflict:

- Any business dealing of Downstreet that results in personal gain to an employee or their relative.
- Interfering with any business opportunity of Downstreet for personal gain to the employee or their relative.
- Acceptance of gifts, money, discounts, or gratuities from any person or entity doing business or seeking to do business with Downstreet, particularly if the item is not offered to the general public.
- An offer by an employee to provide anything of value to a person or organization to induce them to do business with Downstreet, except as reasonable compensation for agreed-upon services.
- An employee or employee's close relative serving or attempting to serve on the Board of Directors of Downstreet.
- An employee engaging in outside employment/volunteer positions that could interfere with the employee's efficient performance of their job (i.e. own business, city council, etc.) or compete with Downstreet.
- Preferential treatment of a vendor that is not based on business needs.
- Any conduct that disrupts or damages the business activities or mission of Downstreet.
- Public opposition of any Downstreet mission-related activity or project.

If an employee becomes aware of any conduct that may create an actual or potential conflict of interest or questions whether any conduct may violate this policy, the employee must bring the conduct to the immediate attention of their supervisor, the Chief Financial Officer, or the Executive Director. The Executive Director will have the final discretion in determining whether or not conduct is prohibited under this policy.

The purpose of this policy is to protect employees and Downstreet from any conflict of interest that might arise.

We thank you for your confidence in Downstreet Housing and Community Development and the Homeownership Center and for allowing us to help meet your housing needs.
